IN PERSON VOTING FAQs

What IDs can I use to vote?
Any valid state or federal government-issued photo ID, including a public university ID, passport, military ID, tribal ID, or drivers license, even if expired.

If I requested an absentee ballot but changed my mind and now want to vote in person, can I do that?
Yes. Even if you never received your ballot in the mail, you can still go to your polling location and sign an affidavit provided by a poll worker. Signing the affidavit cancels your absentee ballot. Then you can vote in person.

PROVISIONAL BALLOT

If you believe you are registered to vote, you have the right to a provisional ballot. A provisional ballot is used by a voter when their eligibility to vote cannot be determined at the polling place. This might happen if you forget your photo ID or if your name is not on the list of registered voters in the precinct. If you are turned away at you polling place you should ask a poll worker for a provisional ballot. It will count only if the problem is solved within three days after Election Day. Be sure to ask how to follow up with your specific problem.
